Part III DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant(s)

1. This action is responsive to the following communications: amendment filed on May 26, 2005
2. This application has been examined. Claims 1-21 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in-

- (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or
- (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

4. Claims 1-7, 11-14, 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Carpenter et al. (US No. 6,081,874).

In regard to claims 1, 11, 17, Carpenter et al. disclose a multi-node system comprising: a first node 10a including a first processor 14a and a first node controller 20 (see figure 1), where said first processor is to generate a transaction request (see figure 3A, col. 9, lines 60-63) and said first node controller is to assert a signal (i.e. vote) to said first processor to indicate that processing of said request is incomplete (see figure 3A, col. 10, lines 4-13).

In regard to claims 2, 12, Carpenter et al. disclose further comprising: a second node controller (from 10c) coupled to said first node controller to receive said request (see figure 1, col. 10, lines 44-57).

In regard to claims 3, 13, 18, Carpenter et al. disclose wherein said second node controller is part of a second node 10c (i.e. target node) including a second processor coupled to said second node controller (see figure 1), wherein said second processor is to complete said request (see figure 3B, col.13, lines 5-36).

In regard to claim 4, Carpenter et al. disclose further comprising: a switching agent 22 coupled between said first and second node controllers (see figure 1).

In regard to claim 5, Carpenter et al. disclose wherein said second processor (i.e. target node) is to complete said request (see figure 3B, col. 13, lines 5-36).

In regard to claims 6, 14, 19, Carpenter et al. disclose where said first node controller is to deassert said signal when said request is completed at said second node (see col. 13, lines 5-36).

In regard to claim 7, Carpenter et al. disclose where said first node controller is to deassert said signal when said request is completed at said second node (see col. 13, lines 5-36).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 8-10, 15-16, 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carpenter et al. in view of Tarui et al. (US No. 6,510,496).

In regard to claim 8-10, 15-16, 20-21, Carpenter et al. teach the claimed subject matter as discussed above except the teaching of the request is a purge TLB entry request. However Tarui et al. disclose the symmetric multiprocessor that nodes each having CPU coupled by a bus and main memory are connected by a switch and cache coherence control comprising processor issuing a purge TLB request (see figures 15-16, col. 18, line 50 through col. 19, line 20). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of an ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have combined the teachings of Tarui et al. within the system of Carpenter et al. because it would provide dynamically managing the memory shared among processors.

Response to Arguments

7. In view of remark filed on May 26, 2005, claims 1-21 have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

Applicant(s) argue that ...Carpenter et al. fail to teach to the first processor is to generate a request and the first node controller is to assert a signal to the first processor to indicate that processing of the request is incomplete... (page 7). The Examiner does not agree. Carpenter et al. teach the first processor 10a issuing a request transaction on its local interconnect 16 (see figure 3A, col. 9, lines 60-63) and the first node controller is to assert a signal (i.e. rerun or retry) to the processor to indicate the processing of the request is incomplete (see col. 8, lines 22-37).

Conclusion

8. All claims are rejected.

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a).

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
